President Beck announced that Loomis Avenue from 155th to 159th Street will be renamed in honor of Dr. John C. Bradley, former Trustee.

Unfinished Business:

Meeting Room Use – The Library Director provided copies of our meeting room policy and after a discussion it was decided that the Library District will continue the practice of allowing only library sponsored events in the library facilities.

New Business:

Awarding Construction Bids – Trustee Patterson requested the cities in which the contractors are located. Trustee Barton made the motion to award the construction bids from Crowther Roofing & Sheet Metal for $193,700.00 and South Suburban Heating for $68,806.00 and was seconded by Trustee Kellogg-Weaver.

Roll Call Vote: Ayes: Marion Beck, Julius Patterson, Christopher Barton, Brenda Thompson and Joyce Kellogg Weaver.
Nayes: Annette Turner.
Absent: Robin Maatman.

Motion Carried.

Tentative Budget Ordinance – Trustee Patterson stated that none of the other organizations he belongs to passes a tentative budget Ordinance, so he requested that we post the Tentative Budget for 30 days and then after the budget hearing we will pass the Budget Ordinance. The other trustees found this acceptable.

The Library Director presented a proposal from TowerWorks for installing a tower to be used for wireless internet access. Trustee Barton made the motion to accept the $10,983.00 proposal from TowerWorks pending approval from the City of Harvey and was seconded by Trustee Patterson.
